SCHOOL TAX NOT A SPECIAL FUND,

HOLDS JUDGE SAUFLEY IN DECIDING AGAINST FORMER SHERIFF—COURT NEWS

Considerable business has been transacted at this term of the Circuit court, at which only equity cases have been heard owing to the non-completion of the new court house. Judge Saufley handed down an important decision in the case of the County Board of Education against T. J. Hill, Sheriff, in which he held that the county school tax, levied under the act of March 24, 1908 must be collected by the Sheriff as are the general county funds, and that this tax is not a special fund. The court holds the sheriff is only allowed his usual 4 per cent fee for collecting this tax and not a special fee of 10 per cent. The judgment holds that the County Board is entitled to recover of Mr. Hill the sum of $495.54 commission he claimed for collecting the school tax. Attorneys for Mr. Hill were granted an appeal to the Court of Appeals from this court's judgment.

The Crab Orchard Banking Company was given judgment for $900 against A. C. Dunn but so much of the judgment as applied to Mollie Campbell was set aside for further proceedings.

The long drawn-out suit to settle the J. R. Napier estate, was finally settled after having passed through several courts. The will of Mr. Napier is set aside and the estate will be divided up among the heirs at law. The estate is valued at several thousand dollars.

Judge Saufley having been interested in the case before his election to the bench, Attorney W. S. Burch was agreed on as special judge to sit in the case of Maggie Owsley against Mary A. Wallace and others, the suit being to settle title to Mrs. Wallace's property next to the railroad on Danville avenue.

There was a large divorce docket at this court, those granted so far being Geo. Lee from Susie Lee; Newton Jones from Lucy P. Jones; Mack Penman from Hattie L. Penman and Edna Barnes from John Barnes.

Campaign For Pool

WILL BE STARTED IN COUNTIES SOUTH OF RIVER

The pool of the Burley Tobacco Society, which has practically had no strength south of the Kentucky river, will be started in Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and other tobacco producing counties this season, if the organizers for the society are able to make any headway with their movement.

Charles Sullivan, of Woodford, one of the leading members of the staff of the Burley Society, was in Danville last week and will prosecute the campaign among these counties with Danville as headquarters, for several weeks. The Advocate says that he held a conference with W. W. White, the county chairman for Boyle, and several other members of the local board at the Gilcher House. Plans for a complete organization of that county were discussed. Work will begin at once. Every farmer will be requested to join the pool and all honorable means will be devoted to enlarging the organization. The warehouse at Mitchellburg has been completed and it is said that prospects are good for another warehouse at Danville.

It is expected that Lincoln county will be invaded next, for the Burley Society officials argue that unless all the tobacco producing counties join the pool, it is but a question of time until the price of tobacco will be so low it won't be worth producing.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

Miss Ellen O'Neal Scott entertained on Wednesday evening a number of her friends in celebration of her twentieth birthday. Some fifty or sixty guests were present and it was an occasion that will not soon be forgotten. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white. The table was a thing of beauty. In the center was a large cake, on which burned twenty tiny candles.

Miss Scott received many handsome presents and was warmly congratulated for giving her friends such an enjoyable occasion. A friend.

SAYS IT IS BLACKMAIL.

A well known young man of the West End was placed under $500 bond in the county court last week on a bad charge. He makes strong denial of the charge, however, and declares that the whole thing is an attempt at blackmail, and that he will prove it at the proper time.

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "This is true the world over where this valuable medicine has been introduced. No other remedy has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by G. L. Penny.

There are four graduates of the Stanford colored school this year and class colors pink and white.

Handsome invitations have been issued by the senior class. The four graduates are Maud E. Dickerson, Kate L. Salter, Cora P. Adams and George Pennington. The class motto is "Onward and Upward" and the class colors pink and white.

APPELLATE COURT SAYS 5TH CLASS TOWNS CAN CLOSE UP STREETS

The Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the Ballard circuit court in the case of the Commonwealth against the Illinois Central Railroad Company. The court holds that cities of the fifth class have the power under the general authority of the law to open and close streets and alleys, although such power is not specifically given in the charter of fifth class towns. The railroad had been indicted for obstructing a street crossing with its roadbed, but pleaded that the city council of Wickliffe had granted by ordinance the right to construct the roadbed.

Buried Treasure

DUG UP IN DIX RIVER BY BOYLE COUNTY MAN.

(Danville Advocate.)

Mr. George Kelly, the blacksmith, who was located for a number of years at Hedgeville in this county, but recently moved to Marksburg in Garrard county, while diving for fish in Dix river near King's Mill Wednesday afternoon encountered a small box which he brought to the surface.

It had been made of plank an inch thick and evidently had been exposed for many years as it was almost rotten and came to pieces with little effort. One end of the box was entirely gone. Mr. Kelly carried the box to the river bank and to his great surprise there were found in one corner three $5 gold pieces and three dollar gold coins, a total of $18.

The water where the box was found is 15 feet deep. Mr. Kelly dived several times to the bottom of the river at the point where the box was found to see if more gold could not be located. It is reasonably certain that the box was originally filled with coin as it was hand made and had been made very strong for the purpose of holding money. Those who saw the box say that it was washed into the river bed from some nearby brooklet and that it was buried in the perilous days of the civil war when residents were afraid either to keep money in banks or in their homes. The coins were made before the civil war, a fact which further indicates that the box was buried during the guerilla days of 40 years ago.

HIGH HONOR FOR DR. ELKIN.

Friends here are much interested in the news that Dr. Archie B. Elkin, son of Col. and Mrs. M. F. Elkin, formerly of Stanford, has been appointed interne physician at the Norwegian Deaconess Home Hospital in Brooklyn. Dr. Elkin recently graduated from the medical college in Atlanta with high honors. He is very popular here and all will be pleased to know of his success.

LIKE SHELBY CAPTURES BUNCH OF FOXES

Like Shelby, of the Shelby City neighborhood, encountered a drove of foxes on his farm the other afternoon. There were two old foxes and five young ones. Mr. Shelby, who is an expert in corraling varmints, ran the foxes into their den and hung a lantern at the entrance. The varmints are said to be so afraid of light that they will stay in their holes until they starve to death rather than pass a lamp to liberty.

The next Mr. Shelby invited Mr. W. P. Givens and many others of his neighbors and put a force of hands to digging out the foxes. After a short time they were encountered and jumped into in every direction. Mr. Shelby killed the two old ones himself and the dogs ran down the young ones.

GRAB ORCHARD HOTEL BURNED DOWN

DEFECTIVE FLUE CAUSES DISASTROUS BLAZE AT LOGAN HOTEL—OTHER NEWS.

Crab Orchard, June 7. The Logan Hotel, located near the depot here, was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday, the blaze catching from a defective flue. Very little of the furniture was saved and the hotel was practically a total loss. It is understood that it was well insured with Fish & Pennington, of Stanford. The hotel had recently been refitted and refurnished and was doing a nice business.

The fire department boys turned out well in an effort to save the building but nothing could be done.

The lecture on the White Plague by Dr. J. G. Carpenter, of Stanford, was well attended Sunday afternoon. It was interesting and very instructive. It might be well for us all to follow the advice he gave.

Dr. W. M. Doores, of Stanford, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam.

An offer has been made by three generous brothers—not citizens of our town, however, but feeling much interest in it—to the ladies of the Christian Aid Society that if they will raise as much money as they possibly can in order to purchase a carpet for their church, they will donate an equal amount. This has greatly enthused the ladies and they intend putting forth every effort to carpet their church as soon as possible.

Mr. Logan carried $2,200 insurance in the Glenn's Falls and Hanover, represented by Fish & Pennington, of Stanford. Let Fish & Pennington call before the fire department.

Protect your property by insuring with Jesse D. Wearen, the Insurance Man.

Hurt In Runaway.

MRS. EMMETT TRAYLOR HURLED FROM BUGGY AND INJURED

A horse hitched to a buggy on Logan avenue became frightened at a train and ran away. It dashed down Logan and then east on Main. Mrs. Emmett Traylor, and her two little children were driving home, when the runaway smashed full into their vehicle. This started Mrs. Traylor's horse to running and she was thrown out and badly shaken up, but the children were not hurt. The runaway buggy was smashed to splinters. It could not be learned to whom it belonged.

Fifth Birthday

CELEBRATED BY YOUNG MISS TRIBBLE WITH PARTY

Little Dorothy Tribble made a charming little hostess on Saturday afternoon when about forty of her little playmates gathered at her home to celebrate her fifth birthday. Arrangements had been made to entertain on the lawn but the showery afternoon compelled the little ones to play their games in the house. Every game that could be thought of was played and when the time came to go home, not one was ready to leave. It was quite a pretty sight to see them all seated around the birthday table, which was pretty with lighted candles and wreaths of flowers, eating the dainty ices, cakes and candies that were served.

The little hostess was beautifully remembered with presents of every description upon this joyous occasion.

A GOOD SHOW

The G. W. Christy show played to a good crowd Monday night. The show is not a three ringed affair but it has some very good features and seemed to please every one who saw it. The work of the Misses Armstrong on the flying trapeze was especially good, being a high class vaudeville stunt. The performing dogs made a hit. The show exhibits here again to night.

NEW BANK OPENS

The new People's State Bank at Gravel Switch opened for business on last Saturday. Dinner was served on the ground and several speeches were made. Citizens of the community deposited about $10,000 as a starter. John L. Isaacs is cashier, James Baxter president, J. Q. Mussen and Matthew Isaacs vice presidents.

At the sale of Capt. J. H. Wilson in Boyle, three cows and 15 shoats brought $240; six mule colts $477 and 11 aged mules averaged $140 a head. Horses averaged $110. Farming implements sold well.

The Lincoln County Board of Education will receive bids on June 13 for the erection of a school building. Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Board meeting June 13 in Supt. G. Singleton's office. 29-2.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS ELECTED

AT FIRST MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF NEW BANK. PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

An enthusiastic meeting of the stockholders of Stanford's new bank, the State Bank and Trust Company, was held in the Odd Fellows building Monday afternoon when officers and directors for the first year were chosen. It was decided to begin business about the 2d of September. Various committees were appointed to arrange details for the new institution's opening, such as building, furniture, etc. This was the first meeting of the stockholders and everyone present seemed greatly encouraged over the prospects for the new institution and appreciative of the hearty reception it is meeting with on all sides.

The officers chosen are among the best known citizens of this and adjoining counties, while the directorate is regarded as a particularly strong one, being composed of conservative and substantial business and professional men and farmers.

A call was issued for ten per cent of the amount of stock subscribed, and Prof. J. W. Ireland was appointed pro tem treasurer for the payment of this amount.

The complete list of officers and directors elected by the stockholders is as follows:

President—W. L. McCarty.
Vice Presidents—G. L. Penny, J. S. Rice, J. D. Eads.

Cashier—J. W. Hutchison.

Attorney—George D. Florence.

Directors—Dr. Proctor, W. P. Kincaid, H. R. Sauff, M. H. Beazley, H. C. Anderson, M. C. Sauffey, R. E. Thompson, E. P. Martin, George V. Hale, J. T. Roberts, Dr. M. M. Phillips, J. D. Eads, Dan Traylor, W. F. Watkins, G. L. Penny, E. C. Garman, J. H. Jackson, T. D. Hammonds, J. B. Bryan, O. C. Gooch, E. G. Beckley, Wm. Beck, G. W. Koger, M. F. Lawrence, A. G. Faulkner, R. L. Collier, E. S. Seidusky, Dr. G. J. Perry, J. W. Hutchison, W. L. McCarty, W. H. Duderar, W. P. Logan, L. E. Hughes, G. E. Florence, J. S. Rice, W. S. Denham, B. D. Carter, W. C. Fish, M. A. Johnson, J. W. Ireland, W. H. Fields.

Negotiations are on for the lease of the vacant storeroom in the Odd Fellows' building, which many believe a splendid location for the new bank.

Girl Crap Shooter

AMONG LAST FINED FOR PLAYING IN DEEP WELL WOODS GAME

The last echo of the celebrated Sunday crap game in the Deep Well woods near Crab Orchard, was heard here last week when four more "crap shooters" who had a hand in the game were hauled before County Judge Bailey and fined $20 and costs each upon their confession of guilt. What was rather unusual was that one of the quartet was a good looking girl, but as all have promised to be good in the future, the officers have withheld their names for this time.

The girl in the case, however, is said to have been passing when the game was in progress and was induced to stop and try her luck just for fun. She is said to have won and found the sport so exciting, she kept on "shooting dem bones" and happened in this way to be on hand when the game broke up in the shooting affray between the two negroes.

Narrow Escape.

FOR DANVILLE CARPENTER WHO WAS STRUCK BY TRAIN

T. H. Wilham a contracting carpenter of Danville, had a narrow escape from death Monday night while returning home after a visit to relatives in Anderson county. As he started across the Southern tracks at Salvisa, his horse started up the railroad in the darkness, instead of keeping to the pike. On account of the darkness Wilham did not notice the horse's course until the dazzling headlights of the late passenger train warned him of his predicament. He attempted to drive his horse out of the way of the oncoming train when he discovered that he was at the end of the long 50-foot trestle on the road in that vicinity. Before he could get out of his buggy, the train struck him, and he, horse and buggy were thrown headlong into the shallow creek below. Mr. Wilham was badly shaken up and his horse was badly hurt but the buggy was smashed to kindling. Wilham says that he was drowsy and on account of the darkness did not realize where his horse was taking him.

MUST HAVE THE I. J.

Writing for the Interior Journal to be sent to him at Greenville, Tenn., J. H. Young, a former Lincoln boy, says: "There are a bunch of us Kentucky boys, four in number down here in the sunny land of the South. So you see we are quite anxious to hear some news from dear old Kentucky, the fairest state in the Union. We Kentuckians are treated with the profoundest respect by these courtly Southerners. We are enjoying ourselves down here. We will be impatiently waiting for your paper since knowing the news it always contains, as I have subscribed for it during my college days."

A FINE RECORD

Miss Lillian Walker McKinney made a very fine record at the term of school just closed. She was not absent a day, never tardy and was on the honor roll each month except one, and that time only lacked a fraction of reaching the required mark which places pupils on the honor roll. The young lady is the little daughter of Mrs. Bessie Reid McKinney.

A GAME ROOSTER A GOOD MOTHER.

"UNCLE DINK" FARMER HAS A BIRD POSSESSED OF UNUSUAL QUALITIES.

Nature fakers have reported several unusual things in the animal world recently but "Uncle Dink" Farmer, Lincoln county's popular jaller, believes he has a game rooster which would take a blue in this class. This rooster has taken a great fancy to a brood of 7 young chickens which "Uncle Dink" is raising in the jail yard, and works for them just as hard as does their own mother. He "clucks" to them just as if he were a broody hen, and at night, instead of mounting a roost with the rest of the fowls, the game cock goes into the coop with the little fellows and their mother, and hovers them exactly as the hen does.

"Uncle Dink" has several Belgian hares in the yard with the chickens and occasionally a big buck gets after the young chickens to see them run. The rooster rushes to their defense and he and the buck rabbit have it. They go at it hammer and tongs and spectators have been entertained half an hour at a time watching the strange combat.

Notwithstanding the fact that the game cock seems to have all the instincts of a mother, he has lost none of his pugnacious qualities for which "Uncle Dink's" strain of "Farmer's Rights" are so justly noted. When shown another rooster, he will rise in the air and actually fly at his antagonist, so eager is he to get at him.

Down in Casey county, near Phil, a hen belonging to J. K. Carson has taken possession of a brood of kittens, and a report from Hopkinsville says that Mrs. Luther Hubbard has a big turkey gobbler which is sitting on the regulation number of hen eggs and is expected to bring off a fine brood of chickens on schedule time. The old gobbler found two turkey eggs and insisted on sitting on them and all efforts to break him up failed. Mrs. Hubbard then decided to turn his inclination to account, so she supplied him with the hen's eggs and the gobbler is now said to be doing his duty by them.

SHELTON SAUFLEY.....Publisher

Entered at the Post Office at Stanford, Ky., as Second Class mail.THE Winchester Sun-Sentinel makes some telling points in the following editorial:

Kentucky could learn some valuable lessons from the newer States, Colorado, for instance. There is but one tax collector for each county. He collects all the taxes on the property assessed and distributes the money to the respective departments. For this he gets one per cent. of the amount collected. We pay six or seven times as much for collecting taxes in Kentucky.

In traveling through Colorado last year we were impressed by the good roads. Upon inquiry we were informed that convicts made the roads. We saw them at work on the roads, but did not know that they were convicts; they wore no stripes, and there were no guards. If they leave they are recaptured and returned to prison walls. The work on the outside is so much more agreeable that we were informed by the officials that it was rare that escape was attempted. How would it do to elect practical men for the next Legislature to succeed the politicians?

We were lucky to be able to issue a paper under last Friday's date. As we stated briefly in that issue, an important part of our press broke just as we were getting ready to go to press. It was a very delicate part and required much labor and pains to repair, but Mr. James Greer proved just the man for the job. Aided by his capable colored assistant, clever John Sneed, he worked until the wee sma' hours of Saturday morning before he finally got it adjusted and the press to running. Faithful helpers then enabled us to get enough papers out to catch what early morning mails we could. Many were missed, but we hope such an aggravating accident will not occur again soon, and pray the indulgence of our readers for this time.

WHITEWASHING FOR BALLINGER

It is believed that the Ballinger-Pinchot committee will submit three reports to Congress. The majority report will, of course, exonerate the Secretary of the Interior. The principal minority report will be signed by Senators Purcell and Fletcher and Representatives James and Graham. Representative Madison, of Kansas, the "insurgent" House republican member, of the committee, is expected to file an individual report against Mr. Ballinger.

Heavy Hail

DOES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IN SOUTHERN SECTION

The southern part of Lincoln county and Casey were visited by a terrific hail storm last week, which did much damage to crops. Fred Karla, of Ottenheim, says that a number of farmers in his section had their wheat beaten down and their loss will be considerable.

Judge Hoyle C. Stone was caught out in the hail storm in Casey. He says that enough hail remained on the ground at points where drifts were made to be raked up two days after in sufficient quantities to be used in making ice cream.

In company with his brother, Hon. George E. Stone, of Danville, Judge Stone was en route from Moreland to Liberty and was caught out in the worst part of the storm. The hail came down in small chunks of ice as large as one's thumb and so fast that it was impossible to see a tobacco barn thirty feet away. The hail was accompanied by a terrific wind and leaves were chopped from the trees until the vegetation was so bare after the storm was over that it looked like winter time. A new building in Liberty was blown down and the largest bridge in town was washed out by the high waters resulting from the melted hail.

Some days later a hail storm almost as severe visited Russell, Adair and Wayne counties. The storm cut a swath about four miles wide. The hail was followed by a cold spell, which reached Stanford. Many farmers reported frost several nights following, and some damage was done to spring vegetables.

Ottenheim.

Mrs. Alfred Kocher, of Louisville, is here visiting her parents. Miss Edna Jones, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of London, will spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. Ida Kearns. Mrs. Sue Russell has somewhat improved since her recent illness.

Mrs. Ida Kearns and Rev. Father Leo entertained a few friends Sunday evening in honor of Miss Annie Kleiner, of Danville. Frank Weintze accompanied one of the young ladies to her home, and after leaving, he had to cross Buck creek. The night being very dark, he made a misstep off the bridge and plunged backwards into the water. He emerged drenched but happy and went on home singing.

The weather has been so cold in this section that farmers are plowing corn with their coats on.

Samuel Zwahlen is building a new tobacco barn.

Mr. John Irvin and Miss Barbara Enslin, formerly of this place, will be married in Louisville tomorrow.

Narrow Escape

For Mercer County Girl When Horse Ran Away.

Miss Alma Cunningham, aged 19, of Salvisa, Mercer county, was fatally injured this week by being thrown from a buggy by a runaway horse and dragged a distance of 100 yards. Miss Cunningham, who is the daughter of H. Cunningham, a prominent farmer, had gone to church at Salvisa with Walter Kennedy. After church, young Kennedy brought the vehicle around to take Miss Cunningham home. He assisted her into the buggy and as he started to follow, the horse sprang away, jerking the lines from his grasp and dashing down the road.

A large crowd from the church who had seen the occurrence followed hurriedly, and a mile away found Miss Cunningham unconscious under the wreckage of the buggy. She had been thrown out and dragged fully 100 yards. She remains unconscious and cannot recover.

Shoes For The Laborer.

The one person who needs and must have the best is the man who labors---comfortable feet and as dry as possible. Our line of "MENZIES SHOES" is today the best shoe made for man. We believe the soles are a little better than most manufacturers put into their Work Shoes. The upper stock is both soft and strong and remains so under hard service. A shoe that seldom if ever rips at seam or sole; both we repair at our expense any time. Most work shoes are made over stubby, ugly lasts, but not so with the "Menzies". They are made over genteel lasts; plain and cap toe, tan and black, heavy or light sole at $3 to $3.50.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

Rev. R. B. Mahony and Miss Marie Mahony attended the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Jefferson to Mr. Grandison Vaughan in Louisville last Friday. Mrs. Vaughan had visited Miss Mahony here and has many friends in this section. The Louisville papers describe the wedding as a beautiful affair. It was solemnized at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Jefferson. The large old fashioned rooms and spacious halls of the Jefferson home are admirably suited to a wedding and were never more beautiful than last evening in their profusion of flowers, Southern smiles, palms and bay trees used in the decorations. The ceremony took place in the drawing room, the white marble mantel being converted into an impromptu altar.

The bridal party entered through an aisle formed of white standards topped with bunches of white peonies and loose bows of satin ribbon. The Rev. Richard D. Smart, of the Broadway Methodist church performed the ceremony. Miss Nancy Johnson of Bardstown, was maid of honor and Mr. Samuel A. Vaghan, of New York, was the best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Marion Hines, of Bowling Green; Misses Lida and Lucy McClarty and Miss Eugenia Dorsey.

The bride, who entered on the arm of the groom, wore a beautiful gown of white satin veiled in embroidered net. The skirt was draped and caught with small clusters of orange blossoms, and the bodice was cut V neck and half sleeves. She wore the regulation tulle veil, caught in her hair with a bandeau of orange blossoms and carried sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

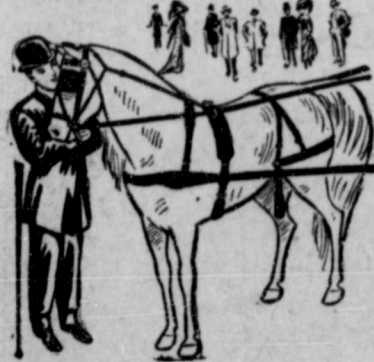

"Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Holloway, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Botts, of Lexington, Mrs. William Ayres, of Pineville, Mr. R. B. Mahony and Miss Marie Mahony, of Stanford, and Miss Mathilde Foster, of Brunswick, Wash.—Louisville Post.
